main on view through March 3.

Approximately seventy pieces will be shown including oil paintings, wood engravings, water colors, sculpture and folk art objects. Also included in the display will be twenty-four woodcuts shown through a loan exhibition of the Pan-American Union.

Noted artists and sculptors whose works are represented in the collection are Teodorico Quiros, Luisa G. Saenz, Gonzalo Morales Alvarado, Manuel de la Cruz Gonzalez L., Francisco Zuniga, Fausto Pacheco, Max Jiminez, Edwin Madrigal, Francisco Amighetti, Nestor Zeledon, Juan Manuel Sanchez, Juan Rafael Chacon and Juan Mora Gonzalez.

The large gallery combines the most modern arrangement for displaying art exhibits and the newest of lighting equipment for such purposes.

Secretary of State R. A. Gray will represent Governor Holland at the dedication of the museum.

Costa Rican Diplomat To Open Art Museum At Rollins Tonight

With an impressive and costly exhibition of the Arts of Costa Rica, Rollins College will formally open its new Morse Gallery of Art at 8:15 o'clock this evening. Guests of honor at the event, which is open to the public, will be the distinguished Minister to the United States from Costa Rica His Excellency, Senor Dr. Don Luis Fernandez and Mme. Fernandez. The Costa Rican Minister and his wife are arriving here from Washington, D. C., today.

The display of noted art works from Costa Rica will be given its first American showing here tonight. The complete exhibit was assembled in Costa Rica and shipped to Rollins College through the generosity of the Costa Rican Government and the donor of the Rollins gallery, Miss Jeannette Morse Genius. The exhibit will re-
